Special Religious Education - Participation Letter

A feature of the public education system in NSW is the opportunity to provide time in class for education in ethics, faith and morality from a religious or non-religious perspective at the choice of parents.

At JCBTHS Special Religious Education (SRE) classes also known as Scripture are an integral part of the school's activities and available for students in Years 7-10. Students not attending SRE are given supervised alternative meaningful activities. The school website provides information on these options to support parent/carer choice.

A parent/carer may at any time notify the school in writing that they wish to change their decision. Students will continue the same arrangement as the previous year, unless a parent/carer has requested a change in writing.

For more information about Special Religious Education (SRE) including the list of approved providers, please visit:

The following options listed on the return slip below are available at James Cook Boys Technology High School. Please choose one and have your son return the permission slip to the Student Services Office.

Yours sincerely
